SHOWCASE RELEASE 2013

Happy Birthday! Coleraine turns 30.

Coleraine '11 marks thirty years of New Zealand's greatest red wine.

Join us at Showcase 2013 for our celebration of 30 years of Coleraine, with a tasting spanning three decades. Coleraine – the One features Coleraine '91, '01 and the new release 30th birthday wine, Coleraine '11.

In a return to the classic Coleraines, the new release '11 is cabernet all the way. At 72% cabernet sauvignon, 22% merlot and 6% cabernet franc, Coleraine '11 shows a concentrated core of perfectly ripe blackcurrants with layers of damson plums and chocolate. Showcasing cabernet's syrupy concentration and structure, it is certain to be a multi decade wine.

Alongside Coleraine - the One, Showcase 2013 will include the latest releases of Awatea, Elston, Zara and Cape Crest. Also, for the first time, we will show all the new Estate Vineyards wines.

Come and celebrate Coleraine's 30th with us at Showcase 2013. We look forward to your company.

Nicholas Buck

P.S. In our Christmas newsletter I toasted Dad, saying that 2012 had been a wonderful celebration of everything John's achieved. The icing on the cake was Dad's amazing award in the Queen's New Year honours (see back page). We're so proud of you, John.

Coleraine '11 — Return of the King

“The legendary Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot blend of NZ.
New Zealand’s Sassicaia.”

- James Suckling.com, USA, Dec. 2012

Coleraine '10 swept the boards with the world's wine media, but you knew it first – selling out from the winery in a record breaking six weeks!

Now, it's the “Return of the King” with Coleraine '11, the 30th birthday vintage. Coleraine '11 is classically cabernet dominant, and one that will delight you for many decades to come. Long live the King!

Coleraine '11 is magnificent, but don't just take my word for it ...

“A majestic red. Coleraine '11 (barrel sample) has all the elements for success.”

- WineWise, Aus, Oct. 2012

So, how quickly will Coleraine '11 sell out? Don't wait to find out ... call me now on 0800 TEMATA to claim your crown in:

New! Estate Vineyards Release

New wines. New branding. New vintages. Last year we introduced our Estate Vineyards wines to our sauvignon blanc, gamay noir and merlot/cabernets. Now it's the turn of chardonnay with the new Estate Vineyards Chardonnay '11. We adore this new look. Watch out for syrah's turn in April.

Heavenly Elevens — Elston Chardonnay '11

“This is really fabulous with insane density like grand cru Burgundy.”

- James Suckling.com, USA, Dec. 2012

If you haven't tried the “fabulous” Elston '11, now is your chance at the Te Mata Estate Showcase 2013 wine release tastings across the country. Along with Elston '11, the Showcase 2013 tasting features the new release Awatea '11 and Cape Crest '12. Alternatively, if you can't make it to any of our tastings then invite over your friends and organise your own Showcase 2013 tastings with:

Showcase Stars 3 Bullnose '11, 3 Awatea '11, 3 Elston '11 and 3 Cape Crest '12 $350.00 save $42.40

Coleraine is back, long live the King! See you at Showcase 2013.

COLERAINE '11 NEW RELEASE

A deep crimson colour, with intense aromas of blackberry syrup, espresso, marzipan, and dried roses. The palate has a concentrated core of perfectly ripe blackcurrants, with layers of damson plums and chocolate leading to long, powerful, tannins and refreshing acidity.

Development Potential: 10-15 years from harvest.

AWATEA '11 NEW RELEASE

A bright magenta colour, with enticing aromas of black cherry, raspberry, plum and cedar. The palate is beautifully balanced with an immediate surge of boysenberry and vanilla spice leading to fine, ripe tannins providing a classically refreshing finish. Development Potential: Up to 10 years from harvest.

BULLNOSE '11 LAST CHANCE

A bright magenta colour, with aromas and flavours of fresh raspberry, red cherry, cinnamon and allspice. The delightful palate is immediately satisfying with layered red berry and plum flavours, infused with sandalwood and vanilla, and a finely textured, sustained tannin finish. Development Potential: 8-10 years from harvest.

ELSTON '11 LAST CHANCE

A brilliant, green gold colour, and lovely aromas of nectarine and white peach, with a background of oatmeal and cedar. It is elegant and intense, with a mineral tension in the extended palate that suggests considerable cellaring potential.

Development Potential: 3-5 years from harvest.

ZARA '11

The palest gold colour, with pure vanilla and spring flower aromas of honeysuckle, jasmine and orange blossom. The soft, ripe palate shows cinnamon, comb honey, apricot and mandarin flavours, with a rich texture and lingering finish. Development Potential: 3-4 years from harvest.

CAPE CREST '12 NEW RELEASE

A perfect pale green colour, with aromas of guava, nectarine, beeswax and coriander, backed with wood smoke and hazelnut. The palate is very long, dry, and concentrated, with great depth of lime, currant, and pear flavours, sea salt and a fresh acid tension that lasts for minutes. Simply fantastic. Development Potential: 3-5 years from harvest.

Estate Vineyards MERLOT/CABERNETS '10

A dark ruby colour, with aromas of fresh blackberry, plum, sage and vanilla. The palate is layered and soft, showing very ripe plum and berry notes intermixed with fine, chocolatey tannins that sustain the long finish.

Development Potential: 3-6 years from harvest.

Estate Vineyards GAMAY NOIR '12

A fabulous bright crimson, with aromas and flavours of fresh roses, black cherries, raspberries, cinnamon and marzipan. The palate is full-flavoured, very ripe and supple, with refreshing, fine tannins and a soft, dry finish.

Development Potential: 1-2 years from harvest.

Estate Vineyards CHARDONNAY '11 NEW RELEASE

A bright straw colour with golden lights, and lovely aromas of ripest white peach, sweet lemon, grilled nuts and toast. The palate is pure, focussed and fine, showing pear juice and nougat flavours, with a creamy texture and refreshing acidity contributing to a long finish. Development Potential: 2-4 years from harvest.

Estate Vineyards SAUVIGNON BLANC '12

A pale straw colour with green lights. Lovely aromas of lemongrass and coriander lend an exotic note to lime, passionfruit and blackcurrant leaf characters. The palate is crisp and mouth-filling, with fresh acidity providing a fine structure to a long, dry, mineral finish.

Development Potential: 1-2 years from harvest.

Woodborpe SYRAH '11 LAST CHANCE

A deep crimson colour with aromas of cherries, boysenberries, cinnamon and toast. The palate is soft and integrated with delightful cherry fruit and a supple, even finish.

Development Potential: 2-5 years from harvest.
