

Halliday

Jane Parkinson, 08 Dec 2017

Estate Vineyards Gamay Noir '17

90 points

Te Mata is one of the southern hemisphere's more serious gamay producers, having planted its vineyards of this Beaujolais grape 20 years ago.

It's punchy with soft red fruits, together with savoury tannins and a healthy dose of peppery spice in a New World-meets-Beaujolais way.

A ripe, robust number for summer parties or even the Christmas turkey.

Te MATA red+white
ESTATE 1896